II. Basis for Jurisdiction

Federal courts are courts of limited jurisdiction (limited power). Generally, only two types of cases can be heard in federal court: cases involving a federal question and cases involving diversity of citizenship of the parties. Under 28 U.S.C. § 1331, a case arising under the United States Constitution or federal laws or treaties is a federal question case. Under 28 U.S.C. § 1332, a case in which a citizen of one State sues a citizen of another State or nation and the amount at stake is more than $75,000 is a diversity of citizenship case. In a diversity of citizenship case, no defendant may be a citizen of the same State as any plaintiff.

On Feb 21, 2023 or around I called DSS on my teen daughter due to her not taking proper care of my grandbaby and I ended up getting a case as well. The next day or so my ex file for custody of my daughter and DSS closed my case without knowledge. my daughter was also placed in a home without DSS properly checking the home out. This was a placement home while they figured out what they were going to do. my daughter missed months of school without.

IV. Relief

State briefly and precisely what damages or other relief the plaintiff asks the court to order. Do not make legal arguments. Include any basis for claiming that the wrongs alleged are continuing at the present time. Include the amounts of any actual damages claimed for the acts alleged and the basis for these amounts. Include any punitive or exemplary damages claimed, the amounts, and the reasons you claim you are entitled to actual or punitive money damages.

The total amount I'm asking for is 1.5 million due to the fact my entire family has suffered from this situation. I hope that this never happens to another family.
